CS-1

Reports from manufacturers of margarine indicate that 28,072,000 pounds of that product were produced during February 1941, the Agricultural Marketing Service states.

This quantity is 1,503,000 pounds less than that produced during February 1940; and 4,040,000 pounds less than the average production for February for the 5 years 1936-40.

Of the total quantity manufactured 3,399,000 pounds or 12 percent, were produced from animal and vegetable oils and 24,673,000 pounds (88 percent) from vegetable and nut oils.
